From her earliest years of childhood in the church choir, Norisha Campbell grew up with gospel and blues, but a different talent determined the life of the 1.91-meter US-American from Florida, she became a professional volleyball player. When two friends from the church persuaded her to perform at the TV-Show "The Voice of Germany" in 2013, it ignited her to begin her second career as a singer. Her debut album "Stand For Love" also fulfills a long-cherished dream of the bassist Harald Scharf. Not only did he orchestrate an excellent quartet from the southern German scene, but also composed the songs for Norisha, the name of the whole band, that emphasize the enormous range of her soulful voice. Whether with soul anthems, modern gospelsongs or jazz ballads, the singer enthuses with powerful sound, extraordinary phrasing and an untraceable sense of timing. Norisha definitely is a „rewarding discovery!“ (Weilheimer Tagblatt)

„Sizzling ambience from the first note on.“ (Mühldorfer Anzeiger)

„Voice-Star Norisha enchants the audience!“ (OVB)
